Does this open market approach need Open Market Approach approval from the Chief Executive or can Is the procurement valued greater than $55k? it be approved by an Approval may be obtained from an authorised person? authorised person in line with your No Yes public authority's Internal Procurement Framework Approval of Approval of open market approach procurement outcome A business is a 'South Australian business' in relation to a procurement if the business: Is the preferred supplier a South Australian Approval may be obtained from an 1. operates in South Australia, and Business? 2. more than 50% of the workforce delivering the authorised person in line with your public contract resulting from the procurement on behalf authority's Internal Procurement Framework of the business are residents of South Australia. Yes No Note: Where the procurement relates to the establishment of a panel contract, approval of the procurement Is there a South Australian Approval of the outcome (including panel rules) must procurement outcome is to business that could supply be obtained from the Chief Executive if one or more of the recommended be obtained from the the required goods/services? suppliers are a non-South Australian authorised person identified business. in the approval to approach the market (i.e. acquisition plan, if applicable) No Yes Approval of the procurement Chief Executive approval must be outcome may be obtained from obtained for the procurement the authorised person identified outcome in the approval to approach The approval must detail why a non-SA business is being the market (i.e. acquisition plan, if For further information, please refer to the applicable) recommended over a SA business Procurement Services SA Procurement Planning Policy and Sourcing Policy.